Sam F. Braybill
Congressman
Virginia 10th District

Dear Congressman Braybill:

On October 31st, 1973, I retired from the Central Intelligence Agency. As of today I have not received any retirement pay, despite several assurances from Agency representatives. Can you help break the log jam?

Before retirement I was told that interim payments would begin promptly and continue until all pertinent records had been assembled. The same song has been sung several times since. I could use money more effectively than music.

Very truly yours,
